

Termination Notice – Special Circumstance

RTA 2018: Section 18

In special circumstances, a tenant is permitted to terminate the rental agreement with one months' notice. Like the example given above, this notice must include a full rental period.

Termination without Cause Notice Requirements
Special Circumstance	Notice Period Tenant to Landlord	Other Requirements
Tenant has reduced income due to ill health.		Tenant must provide evidence of tenant's reduced income.
Person subsidizing tenant's rent becomes ill and no longer able to subsidize tenant's rent.	Not less than 1 month before the end of the rental period.	Tenant must provide evidence of supporting person's ill health.
Tenant is required to live with an ill family member.	•	Tenant must provide evidence of family member's ill health.
Tenant is admitted to a nursing home or similar facility as a permanent resident.		Tenant must provide evidence of the tenant's admission to the nursing home or other similar facility.
Tenant dies.		Estate administrator must provide evidence of tenant's death.

The termination notice must be fully completed and signed in the appropriate form identified below and located in Appendix A of the Guide for Landlord and Tenants.

Form: Tenant's Notice to Terminate Early – Special Circumstance